

Adventurous Scout Activities

Scouts South Australia

Training Flowchart for Power Boating

Certificate of Adult training (CoAL)

Appropriate (VET) current First Aid Certificate

Common Core Level 1 basic training is required for all Adventurous Scout Activities Training.

This may be achieved in the sail training or through another activity training program, e.g. bushwalking, caving, canoeing

Scout Module	VET Unit <sup>1</sup>	VET Unit Description
Operate communications systems and equipment	PUA OPE 002A	Operate communications systems and equipment
Demonstrate navigation skills in a controlled environment	SISO NAV 201A	Demonstrate navigation skills in a controlled environment
Use and maintain a temporary or overnight site	SISO OPS 202A	Use and maintain a temporary or overnight site

To undertake your Power Boat training you will then need to progress to a specific skill set. The base level for supervising qualifications, for Power Boating is Level 2.

Power Boat Skill Set
	Scout Module	VET Unit <sup>1</sup>	VET Unit Description
Level 1	Carry out trip preparation and planning	MEM 50008B	Carry out trip preparation and planning
	Safely operate a mechanically powered recreational boat	MEM 50009B	Safely operate a mechanically powered recreational boat
Level 2	Respond to boating emergencies and incidents	MEM 50010B	Respond to boating emergencies and incidents
	Interpret weather for marine environments	SISO OPS 303A	Interpret weather for marine environments
Level 3	Yet to be defined	Yet to be defined	Yet to be defined

Demonstrate knowledge of Scouts (SA) admin procedures in regards to Power Boating.
e.g. SS&P's, Zones, Boat Registrations.

Branch Endorsement for Power Boat in accordance with SS&P's

<sup>1</sup>VET units are only available through a SAIT RPL process